

Pardeep Kumar, Advocate, is a practicing lawyer in Supreme Court, High Courts & other courts. His educational qualifications are:

B.A. with Honours in English, LL.B.

General Course in Intellectual Property Rights from 'World Intellectual Property Organization', GENEVA (SWITZERLAND)

P.G. Diploma in Intellectual Property Law, from Indian Law Institute, Delhi.

P.G. Diploma Cyber Law, from Indian Law Institute, Delhi.

P.G. Diploma in Journalism & Mass Communication.

For more than two years Mr. Pardeep Kumar, Advocate, worked in the Chamber Mr. Prashant Bhushan, Advocate, Supreme Court, where gained experience Civil, Criminal and PIL matters. He has also been providing legal consultancy to ANM Global Inc., an international Law Firm dealing with the Corporate and Intellectual Property matters.

Apart from his regular practice before the Supreme Court and other courts, he also provided legal consultancy to the CENTRAL INFORMATION COMMISSION (an apex authority under the RTI Act), as its Advocate & Legal Consultant, from the year 2008 to 2012. During his attachment with the Central Information Commission, he had privilege to work as an Enquiry Officer in some important cases involving victimization and harassment of information seekers. He also assisted the Central Information Commission by providing assisting in drafting of judgments, drafting of Show Cause Notices, Legal Opinions, attending court matters in different High Courts etc.

In the year 2010, Mr. Pardeep Kumar also had a privilege to work as an Astd. Legal Consultant cum Prosecutor of NATIONAL INVESTIGATION AGENCY (N.I.A.), a Central Counter Terrorism Law Enforcement Agency of India, under Ministry of Home Affairs. During his tenure with N.I.A. he underwent high profile training on 'Investigation' at different institutions at CBI Forensic Lab, All India Medical Institute etc., where he learnt the skills to deal with the cases involving bomb blast, arms and ammunition, fake currency, terrorists etc. He also partially attended the Samjhauta Train Blast Case in Haryana and Headley case relating to terrorist attack on Taj Hotel. He also assisted the Senior Law Officer and lawyers before courts in different cases involving terrorists and provided assistance in drafting of N.I.A. Manual, drafting of the proposed amendments in NIA Act and The Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act.

Mr. Rapria has also worked as an Advocate & Consultant of a 'Justice Onkar Singh Free Legal Aid Service Trust' headed by Shri KTS Tulsi, Senior Advocate, Supreme Court. The trust provide free legal aid to the needy persons all over India in domestic violence matters and other family matters including divorce, dowry harassment, dowry death etc.

During his college days Mr. Pardeep Kumar was the outstanding sportsman in Boxing team of the R.K.S.D. College. He also participated in N.C.C. activities and two Army Attachment Camps at Ambala Cant.

He is also the founder father of a civil society namely 'Haryana Justice Platform' working in the field of Right to Information law. And, his article 'RIGHT TO INFORMATION AND ITS IMPACT ON BUSINESS' was recently in month of September, 2012 was published in Corporate Law Adviser Journal.

Mr. Pardeep Kumar may be reached at pk9999212148@hotmail.com ,

Mobile No. 9999212148.